

Programme mieux-être* FAQ

1. I am experiencing an issue and I would like support. When should I use the Programme mieux-être?

Fewer than 50% of post-secondary students who should be seeking mental health supports are getting the support they need. So, just like you would visit the doctor for physical pain to make sure it doesn't get worse, you should reach out to the Programme mieux-être if you're ever struggling or questioning whether or not you should seek help for your mental health and well-being.

The Programme mieux-être is a support service available 24/7, 365 days a year.

Regardless of the nature of the issue you're experiencing, it's important to seek help as soon as possible, as this has been shown to result in the best outcomes.

You're not alone, and the Programme mieux-être is here to support you.

The Programme mieux-être has a number of professionals with various domains of expertise, including psychology, psychotherapy, social work, nutrition, etc., allowing them to respond effectively to diverse needs. You can get support for issues of any kind, such as:

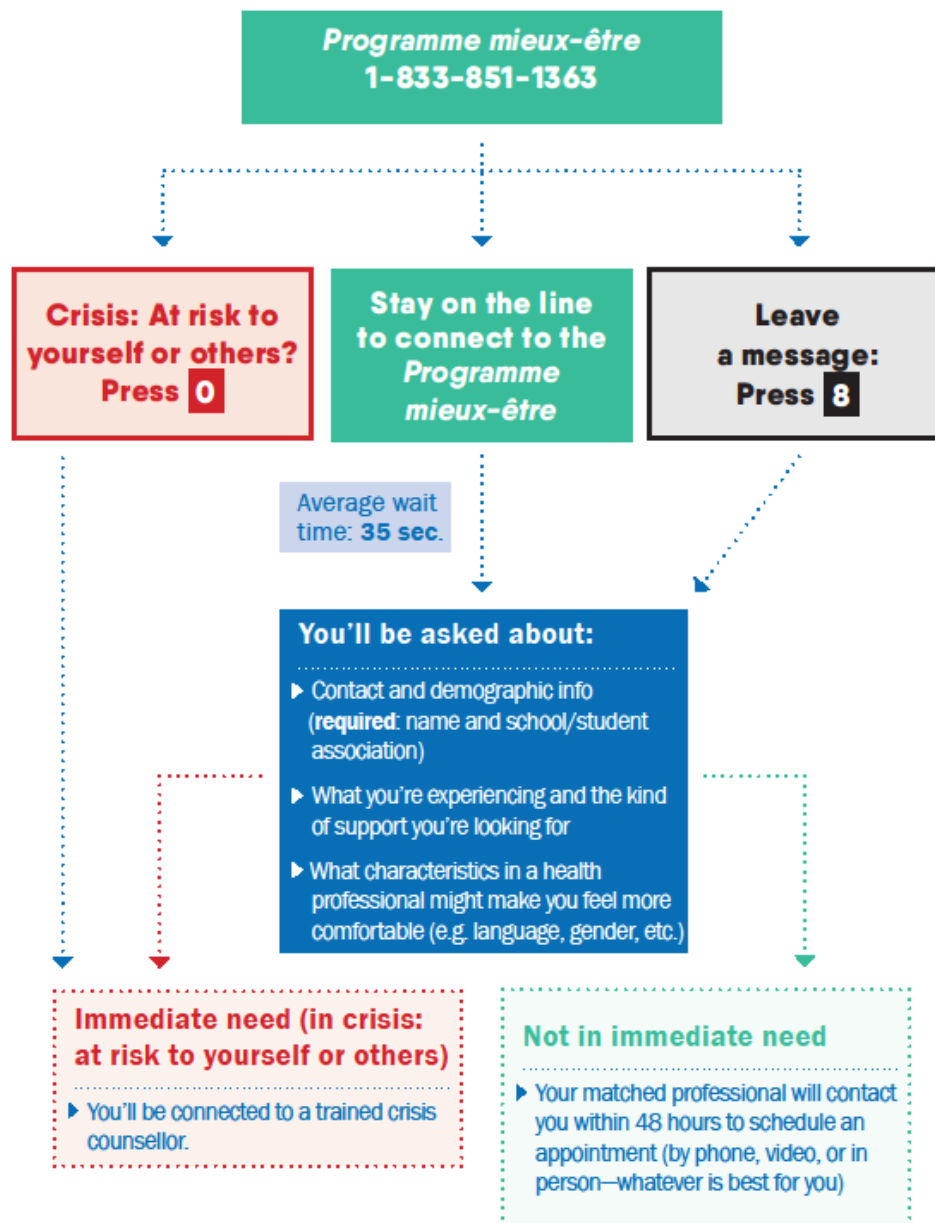

- Stress or anxiety
- Depression
- Relationships or interpersonal conflicts
- Family responsibilities
- Substance misuse/abuse
- Disordered eating
- Time management
- Career counselling
- Financial planning or financial insecurity
- Nutrition, and more

2. What will happen during my first call?

When you first reach out to the Programme mieux-être, you'll be connected with a professional who will ask you some demographic questions and learn about the issue(s) you're experiencing¹ and plan a course of action with you. Please note that you must provide your name and school/student association when you contact the Programme mieux-être for immediate crisis services or other issues.

Together, you'll determine what supports are right for you.

The professional that you're paired with will then contact you within 48 hours to schedule your first appointment. This appointment may be in person, by telephone, or by videoconference—whatever you feel is best for you.

Note that immediate access to crisis services is always available, 24/7.

3. Will I have to pay an additional cost for the service?

As an eligible student, you can access professionals via the Programme mieux-être service at no cost. If you need a referral to an external service, every effort will be made to work with you to find an appropriate resource. However, any potential costs incurred outside the Programme mieux-être may not be fully or partially covered.

4. How many sessions can I receive?

The Programme mieux-être is a mental health support service. While some individuals may only need 1 or 2 sessions, others might require more. Each issue is evaluated on a case-by-case basis, and there is no maximum. The number of sessions is determined by you and the professional you are working with. If you need long-term support or are experiencing severe distress, you may be referred to a service that can serve you better and meet your needs.

5. Is the Programme mieux-être confidential, and how is my personal information used or shared?

Confidentiality is of utmost importance to the Programme mieux-être service. All of the personal information you share, as well as your conversations, will remain completely private, within the limits of the law. All Programme mieux-être professionals adhere to a strict ethics code and are accountable to their respective professional associations.

General Programme mieux-être usage data is shared with your institution. However, no individual or identifying information will ever be shared.

6. Can I access help in another language?

Yes, the Programme mieux-être offers support in multiple languages by telephone and videoconference: English, French, Mandarin, Spanish, Russian, German, and Italian. When you make your first call, simply ask the intake agent to pair you with a professional for support in your preferred language.

7. Should I use the Programme mieux-être if I think my problem is too serious or not serious enough?

The number one reason post-secondary students don't seek support is that they feel their issue isn't serious enough. It's always best to reach out for support if you're going through challenging times. With the Programme mieux-être, no issue is too big or too small.

8. What if I feel that I don't have a good fit with a professional?

It may feel uncomfortable to say something, but having a good relationship with your mental health professional is one of the biggest predictors of therapeutic success. We know that sometimes, there may not be a good fit with the person you were referred to. You're always welcome to call the Programme mieux-être and request a referral to a different professional.
